Democratic Club Names W W. Evans Secretary; Four New Committeemen.

Joseph U. Sweeney is vice president of the County and City Democratic cigb. He was elected Friday night at the regular meeting of the ciub. W. W. Evanz was selected to succeed C. A. Kinne as setretary, Herman Andreas named as troissurer. Charles Pollock, ciub manager, and James Lanler, Crawford Harvie, C. L. Vowell and A. R. Webb were elected as additional members of the executive committee of the club.

R. Webb were elected as additional nambers of the executive committee of the club.

J. M. Wyatt, president of the club, who recently returned from a business trip, presided at the opening of the meting and then called C. L. Vowell to preside while he went into executive returned from a business trip, presided at the opening of the meting and then called C. L. Vowell to preside while he went into executive returned to the meting and the resident with the old members of the executive committee. While this session was in progress Mr. Vowell made a short speech urging everyone to pay their dues to the club and to create in the club in anticipation of the coming county election. The enemy is not dead but sleeping. Mr. Vowell said. For this reason it is necessary that we keep this club going and organize for the fight that is coming. H. M. Wakier and other members of the club also made short talks on financing the club.

President Wyatt then made his report of the recommendations of the executive committee for the positions to be filled. He amounced that two vacancies remained on the executive committee which would be filled later. One, he said, would be named from among the railroad men and the other from the city at large. He said that since C. A. Kinne, who was elected city treasurer, had not resigned it would be necessary to obtain his resignation before a new secretary could be named. However, he recommended W. W. Evans for this position when the place became vacant.

fowever, he recommended W. W.

Evans for this position when the place became vacant.

To Har Furniture.
In naming Charles Pollock for manager of the club Mr. Wyatt announced that subscription lists were being circulated to buy furniture for the club and to conduct it as a regular club. Mr. Pollock is now park watchman but will resign this place, it is understood, to accept the position as manager of the club.

club.

R. Webb, one of the new members. A.R. Webb, one of the new members of the executive committee. Is president of the carpenters union. Crawford Harvie is manager of the El Paso iaundry, James Lanier is a cattleman and C. I. Vowell an attorney. Mr. Wyatt announced that Ts applications for membership had been acted upon favorably by the club executive committee and had been voted in as members. He also announced that there were two vacancies to be filled on the Democratic executive committee to Democratic executive committee to take the places of Wade Schreffler and S. J. Freudenthal who had resigned. Mr. Wratt amounced that the executive committee was in perfect harmony with the club.
